

16th EFNS Congress, Stockholm, Sweden, 8. – 11. September, 2012

EFNS staff after excellent preparation optimistic towards course of congress in the next days

Management committee during coffee break delegates and speakers dinner: The magician demonstrates his skills

EFNS President Professor Hughes addressing the audience at the opening ceremony

Sten Fredrikson, chairman local arrangement committee, at the opening ceremony

The special performance at the opening ceremony: "ABBA" (Super Troupers)

"ABBA" after their enthusiastic show

Well visited lecture at the session hall

Smaller rooms were even more crowded

EFNA presentation: The Good Life: The pianist on the right side suffered severe dystonia in the fingers of her right hand for years. After treatment with Botox she is able again to play piano in the public. Professor Altenmüller chairs the session and explains this disturbance, many musicians suffer from.

Uschi Tschabitscher Prize winners B. Arns and P. Guaraldi

Nobel Prize winners are honored in this excellent decorated room, EFNS Participants were served with fine Scandinavian treats

Prof. Hughes hands over the Investigator Award certificates to the prize winners during the closing session

EFNS Booth

Networking area and Poster Exhibition

Social event at the Stadshuset of Stockholm, networking reception at the place that hosts the Nobel prize ceremony

EFNS ladies happy after a successful congress